It is observed that Accounts Receivable of TGV SRAAC LTD has decreased to 9\% in FY 2019 as compared with the previous year, whereas the Accounts Receivable of PACL Ltd is just 3\% as on FY 2019. Also, the closing inventory of TGV SRAAC LTD as on FY 2019 is $8 \%$ which has increased by $2 \%$ from the previous year, whereas the closing inventory of rival company, PACL Ltd is only 4\% as on FY 2019.It can be interpreted from the facts that, TGV SRAAC LTD has increased the production of goods resulting in increase of inventory which has led to rise in revenue for FY 2019. Because of this significant rise in revenue, we can interpret that collection from debtors has increased to $9 \%$ in FY 2019. Whereas, we can analyze from the figures of PACL Ltd that the production was less in FY 2019 resulting in lower percentage of closing inventory as compared with TGV SRAAC LTD.

Due to higher production and moving inventory, the cost of goods sold has increased in FY 2019 of TGV SRAAC LTD to $81 \%$ which has resulted in increase of account payables to $18 \%$ as compared with our rival company. However, accounts payable has significantly decreased by $9 \%$ as compared with FY 2018 of TGV SRAAC LTD , this might be due to the company might have been paying the suppliers on time and might also be avoiding the cost of interest.

TGV SRAAC LTD has earned lesser profits as compared with PACL Ltd because TGV SRAAC LTD has an increase in the expenditures viz; payment of taxes, interest costs, depreciation and amortization and exceptional items.
