Course Objectives:

Financial Markets and Banks are central to the carrying out of economic activity in all nations. These are also the most regulated and dynamic sectors of national economies. An objective of this course is to equip students with a basic understanding of a variety of financial instruments in vogue in various segments of the Indian financial markets. Another objective of this course is to provide students with an introductory level of understanding of some selected aspects of commercial banking activities and banking regulations in the Indian context.

Pedagogical Methods:

The course is based on classes, cases, and project work. Active participation by students is an important feature of the course. A variety of quizzes, take home assignments, tests, and case studies are the main pedagogical instruments.

Any other good (introductory) book on Financial Markets and Commercial Banking

Study Material

Students will be given a text book as part of the course material. In addition, a handout containing a set of core and supplementary readings on banking will be provided. Should the students feel that they need more reading material (or detailed notes) for a particular topic – they can get in touch with me.

Other Course Policies:

Students are expected to have their own calculators during the class/examinations.

Exams → End-term exam will typically have cases/problems followed by questions. The end-term exam will be comprehensive meaning you will be responsible for all the material covered in the course.

Class Participation → I will sometimes randomly call on people to present their answers, case analysis, and assignment solution, and at other times I will allow people to volunteer to present their worked out solutions. Class participation marks will also be based on participation in class discussion, attendance, and being on time.

Plagiarism/Cheating → Students are requested to go through the students manual regarding the rules and regulations related to cases of copying and similar acts. Cheating in examinations, quizzes or assignments will be dealt with severely. Depending upon the extent of plagiarism/cheating, the penalty could range from a subtraction of 25 marks from the total score obtained by the student or the awarding of an "F" grade to reporting the incident to the Associate Dean for appropriate action such as removal of the students name. Please note that aiding and abetting your batchmates in such activities will also be given the same penalties. NO subsequent justifications/ arguments will be entertained.
